Report

Title of the Activity:	Internet of Things (IoT): Innovations and Challenges
Date	October 21-25, 2019
Coordinator of the activity	Dr. Varun Bansal
Conducting Department	School of Engineering &amp; Technology
Total Number of the Participants	40
Venue	Seminar Hall
Purpose of the Activity	Internet of Things (IoT): Innovations and Challenges aims to provide educators and professionals with a comprehensive understanding of IoT technologies, innovations, and the challenges associated with their implementation. This program will cover core IoT concepts, including sensor networks, data collection, and analytics, as well as emerging trends and applications across various industries such as smart cities, healthcare, and industrial automation. Participants will explore the technical, ethical, and security challenges related to IoT systems and learn strategies to address these issues effectively. Through expert-led sessions, practical workshops, and case studies, the FDP seeks to equip participants with the knowledge and skills necessary to teach, research, and apply IoT technologies, fostering innovation and addressing the complexities of this rapidly evolving field.
Resource Person(s)	Dr. Himanshu Gupta (NIT Jalandhar); Mr. Rajesh Pandey (Shobhit Deemed University Meerut)
Outcome of the Activity	Participants gained a solid understanding of IoT technologies, innovations, and challenges. They are now equipped with practical skills to address technical and security issues, enhancing their ability to apply and teach IoT concepts.
Feedback	Faculty members found the FDP highly informative, valuing the in-depth exploration of IoT innovations and challenges. The hands-on sessions and expert insights significantly enhanced their understanding and application of IoT technologies.

Coordinator of the activity	Dr. Pritam Panwar
Conducting Department	School of Law and Constitutional Studies
Total Number of the Participants	38
Venue	Seminar Hall
Purpose of the Activity	The Faculty Development Program (FDP) on Legal Education and Pedagogy, held from August 5 to 9, 2019, aimed to advance the skills and knowledge of educators in the field of legal education. The program was designed to address contemporary challenges and innovations in teaching methods, with a focus on enhancing pedagogical approaches and integrating new technologies into legal instruction. Participants explored effective strategies for engaging students, developing curriculum, and assessing learning outcomes. Through interactive sessions, workshops, and expert presentations, the FDP sought to provide practical tools and insights for improving teaching practices and fostering a more dynamic learning environment in legal education. By the end of the program, participants were expected to be better equipped to implement innovative educational techniques and contribute to the advancement of legal pedagogy in their institutions.
Resource Person(s)	Dr. Pritam Singh Panwar, Dr. Shakeel Ahmad, Dr. Shailendra Kumar, Dr. Faizanur Rehman, Dr. Arun Singh
Outcome of the Activity	The FDP on Legal Education and Pedagogy, held from August 5 to 9, 2019, equipped participants with innovative teaching methods and effective pedagogical strategies. It enhanced their understanding of modern legal education practices and provided practical tools for improving instructional approaches.
Feedback:	The FDP on Legal Education and Pedagogy, held from August 5 to 9, 2019, received enthusiastic feedback from participants. Attendees appreciated the program's focus on innovative teaching methodologies and effective pedagogical strategies. The sessions were well-received for their practical insights and interactive approach, which facilitated a deeper understanding of contemporary issues in legal education. Participants valued the opportunity to engage with experts and peers, discuss best practices, and explore new tools for enhancing legal instruction. The program's comprehensive coverage of pedagogical techniques and its relevance to current educational challenges were highlighted as key strengths. Overall, the FDP was considered a valuable and enriching experience, contributing significantly to the participants' professional development.

Activity Report

Title of the Activity:	Molecular Microbiology and immunology
Date	05.11.2019 to 09.11.2019
Coordinator of the activity	Mrs. Sarita Sharma
Conducting Department	SBES
Total Number of the Participants	38
Purpose of the Activity	FDP on Molecular Microbiology and immunology fostered an understanding of immunological principles, including innate and adaptive immune responses, immune regulation, and immunotherapy applications. FDP program addressed ethical considerations related to microbiological and immunological research, including biosafety, biosecurity, and responsible conduct of research. It enabled participants to apply molecular microbiology and immunological techniques to address challenges in healthcare, agriculture, environmental sciences, and biotechnological industries.
Venue	Seminar hall
Resource Person	<ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. Dr. Narotam Sharma (Senior scientist at DNA Labs Dehradun)</li><li>2. Dr. Divya Prakash, SBES, Shobhit University, Gangoh</li><li>3. Mr. Ayush Madan, SBES, Shobhit University, Gangoh</li></ol>
Outcome of the Activity	FDP on Molecular Microbiology and immunology enabled participants to apply molecular microbiology and immunological insights in diverse applications, including healthcare diagnostics, antimicrobial therapy development, agricultural biotechnology, and environmental microbiology. FDP facilitated networking and collaboration among participants and experts in molecular biology, microbiology, immunology, and related disciplines.
Feedback:	The feedback from the Faculty Development Program was overwhelmingly positive. Participants appreciated the content covered throughout the program and hands-on workshops which were exceptionally well-organized.

Report

Title of the Activity:	Quality Assurance in Higher Education
Date	20 – 24, April 2020
Coordinator of the activity	Dr. Varun Bansal
Conducting Department	School of Engineering &amp; Technology
Total Number of the Participants	72
Venue	Seminar Hall
Purpose of the Activity	FDP on Quality Assurance in Higher Education aims to equip educators and administrators with essential knowledge and tools to enhance and maintain high standards in academic institutions. This program will cover key aspects of quality assurance, including accreditation processes, internal and external evaluation mechanisms, quality benchmarks, and continuous improvement strategies. Participants will explore best practices for developing and implementing effective quality assurance frameworks, conducting assessments, and using data to drive institutional improvement. Through expert-led presentations, interactive workshops, and case studies, the FDP seeks to provide practical insights and strategies for ensuring academic excellence and institutional effectiveness. By fostering a culture of quality, the program aims to support institutions in achieving and sustaining high standards of education and administrative practices.
Resource Person(s)	Prof. Ranjit Singh (VC – SU Gangoh); Dr. Raj Singh (Jain University, Bangalore); Dr. Ashok Gupta; Dr. Jayanand (SIET Deemed to-be University Meerut; Dr. Aniket Singh
Outcome of the Activity	Faculty Members gained practical knowledge and skills in quality assurance processes, accreditation, and continuous improvement strategies. They are now better equipped to enhance and maintain high standards in their academic institutions.
Feedback	Faculty members found the FDP highly beneficial, appreciating the in-depth coverage of quality assurance processes and accreditation. The practical insights and strategies provided significantly enhanced their ability to ensure and improve institutional standards.

Activity Report

Title of the Activity:	Recent Advances in Biomedical Engineering & Biosensors
Date	12/03/2020 to 14/03/2020
Coordinator of the activity	Dr. Vinay Kumar
Conducting Department	SBES
Total Number of the Participants	36
Purpose of the Activity	The program is designed to familiarize participants with the latest innovations in biomedical engineering, such as wearable and implantable biosensors, lab-on-a-chip devices, and AI-driven diagnostic tools. This ensures that faculty are well-informed about recent breakthroughs and can incorporate this knowledge into their teaching and research. Faculty will learn how to incorporate the latest advancements in biosensor technology into their curriculum and research programs. This will improve their ability to teach complex concepts related to sensors, biomedical instrumentation, and their real-world applications, making learning more relevant to current industry needs.
Venue	Seminar hall
Resource Person	<ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. Dr. Manu Pant (HOD, Department of Biotechnology, Graphic Era University, Dehradun, Uttarakhand)</li><li>2. Dr. Naveen Kumar, Assistant Professor, SBES, Shobhit University, Gangoh</li></ol>
Outcome of the Activity	Participants gain hands-on experience with the latest tools and techniques for designing, developing, and testing biosensors. This practical exposure equips participants to implement these technologies in their own research or teaching activities. The FDP fosters an understanding of how biomedical engineering and biosensors are increasingly being integrated with other fields like

Report

Title of the Activity:	Intellectual Property Rights: Current Issues and Future Directions
Date	February 03 – 07, 2020
Coordinator of the activity	Dr. Usman Khan
Conducting Department	School of Law and Constitutional Studies
Total Number of the Participants	50
Venue	Seminar Hall
Purpose of the Activity	The Faculty Development Program (FDP) on "Intellectual Property Rights: Current Issues and Future Directions," scheduled for February 03 – 07, 2020, aims to enhance participants' understanding of contemporary issues and advancements in intellectual property (IP) law. This FDP seeks to equip educators, researchers, and professionals with a comprehensive overview of IP rights, including copyright, patents, trademarks, and trade secrets. Through expert sessions led by distinguished speakers Mr. Vinay Shrivastav, Mr. Mansoor Khan, Dr. Faheem, and Dr. Faizanur Rehman, participants will gain insights into current trends, regulatory challenges, and future directions in the field. The program will include practical workshops and case studies to address real-world IP issues and their implications in the digital age. By fostering a deeper understanding of IP management and enforcement, the FDP aims to support participants in navigating the evolving landscape of intellectual property effectively.
Resource Person(s)	Mr. Vinay Shrivastav, Mr. Mansoor Khan, Dr. Faheem, Dr. Faizanur Rehman
Outcome of the Activity	The FDP on Intellectual Property Rights provided participants with a thorough understanding of current IP issues, emerging trends, and future directions. Attendees gained practical insights into managing IP effectively, navigating legal challenges, and applying IP laws in real-world scenarios, enhancing their expertise in intellectual property rights and their enforcement.
Feedback:	The FDP on Intellectual Property Rights was highly informative, with expert insights from Mr. Vinay Shrivastav, Mr. Mansoor Khan, Dr. Faheem, and Dr. Faizanur Rehman. Participants appreciated the practical workshops and case studies, which clarified complex IP issues and enhanced their ability to handle IP challenges effectively.

Report

Title of the Activity:	Outcome Based Education, Learning and Assessment under NEP 2020
Date	June 08 – 13, 2020
Coordinator of the activity	Dr. Varun Bansal
Conducting Department	School of Engineering &amp; Technology
Total Number of the Participants	138
Venue	Seminar Hall
Purpose of the Activity	Outcome-Based Education, Learning, and Assessment under NEP 2020 aims to familiarize educators with the principles and implementation strategies of Outcome-Based Education (OBE) as outlined in the National Education Policy (NEP) 2020. This program will cover essential aspects such as defining learning outcomes, aligning curriculum and assessment with these outcomes, and employing innovative teaching methods to enhance student learning and achievement. Participants will explore effective assessment techniques to measure learning outcomes and ensure continuous improvement. Through expert-led sessions, interactive workshops, and practical case studies, the FDP seeks to equip educators with the skills and knowledge to implement OBE effectively, thereby improving the quality of education and student performance in alignment with NEP 2020 guidelines.
Resource Person(s)	Prof. Ranjit Singh (VC – SU Gangoh); Dr. Ashok Gupta; Dr. Jayanand (SIET Deemed to-be University Meerut; Dr. Raj Singh (Jain University, Bangalore)
Outcome of the Activity	Faculty members gained a deep understanding of Outcome-Based Education principles and assessment strategies aligned with NEP 2020, enhancing their ability to implement effective curriculum and assessment practices to improve student learning outcomes.
Feedback	Faculty members found the FDP insightful and practical, praising its thorough coverage of Outcome-Based Education and NEP 2020 guidelines. The sessions effectively enhanced their skills in aligning curriculum and assessment with learning outcomes.

Title of the Activity:	Public International Law
Date	May 22 – 26, 2020
Coordinator of the activity	Dr. Usman Khan
Conducting Department	School of Law and Constitutional Studies
Total Number of the Participants	26
Venue	Seminar Hall
Purpose of the Activity	The Faculty Development Program (FDP) on Public International Law, held from May 22 to 26, 2020, aims to deepen participants' understanding of the principles and frameworks governing relations between states and other international actors. This FDP is designed to equip educators, researchers, and legal professionals with a comprehensive knowledge of key topics in public international law, including the sources of international law, the role of international organizations, human rights law, environmental law, and the challenges of global governance. Through expert-led sessions, workshops, and interactive discussions, participants will explore the complexities of international legal systems and their impact on national sovereignty, global trade, and conflict resolution. The program seeks to foster critical thinking and provide participants with the tools to effectively teach and apply international legal principles in their academic and professional endeavors.
Resource Person(s)	Dr. Mohd. Imran and Mohd. Amir; Mr. Subham Sharma and Ms. Neha Bharti
Outcome of the Activity	The Faculty Development Program (FDP) on Public International Law, conducted from May 22 to 26, 2020, successfully enhanced participants' understanding of key concepts and contemporary issues in international law. Attendees gained valuable insights into the complexities of international legal frameworks, the functioning of international organizations, and the impact of international law on national sovereignty and global governance. The program equipped participants with practical knowledge and teaching strategies to effectively incorporate international law into their academic and professional work. Additionally, the interactive sessions and case studies fostered critical thinking and a deeper appreciation for the role of international law in addressing global challenges.
Feedback:	Faculty members praised the FDP on Public International Law for its insightful sessions, expert speakers, and practical relevance, enhancing their understanding and teaching of complex international legal issues.

Activity Report

Title of the Activity:	Wireless Technologies for Modern Medical Equipments
Date	08/05/2020 to 12/05/2020
Coordinator of the activity	Mrs. Sarita Sharma
Conducting Department	SBES
Total Number of the Participants	SBES
Purpose of the Activity	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Encourage the exploration of innovative solutions using wireless technologies to improve patient care, diagnostics, and treatment methodologies.</li><li>• Equip participants with hands-on experience in designing and implementing wireless medical devices, enhancing their technical proficiency.</li><li>• Raise awareness of cybersecurity and data privacy issues related to wireless medical technologies, preparing faculty to navigate these challenges effectively.</li><li>• Foster collaboration among faculty from different disciplines, promoting a holistic approach to integrating wireless technologies into medical practices.</li></ul>
Venue	Seminar hall
Resource Person	<ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. Dr. Ankita Singh (Junior Scientist and Quality Manager at DNA Labs, a center for applied sciences)</li><li>2. Dr. Divya Prakash, SBES, Shobhit University, Gangoh</li><li>3. Dr. Rajiv Dutta, SBES, Shobhit University, Gangoh</li></ol>
Outcome of the Activity	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Faculty will acquire hands-on experience in designing and implementing wireless medical devices, improving their technical capabilities.</li><li>• Participants will be equipped to integrate wireless technology topics into their courses, enriching the educational experience for students.</li></ul>
