Report

Title of the Activity:	Physical Medicine Modalities in Naturopathy: Techniques and Benefits'
Date	17/10/2022 to 21/10/2022
Coordinator of the activity	Dr. Shiba Jha
Conducting Department	Kunwar Shekhar Vijendra Medical College of Naturopathy & Yogic Sciences
Total Number of the Participants	23
Venue	Seminar Hall
Purpose of the Activity	The purpose of the FDP on Physical Medicine Modalities in Naturopathy is to enhance educators' knowledge of various therapeutic techniques, emphasizing their practical applications and benefits in promoting holistic health and patient well-being within clinical practice.
Outcome of the Activity	The FDP on Physical Medicine Modalities equipped participants with practical skills and knowledge to effectively integrate various therapeutic techniques into their practice, enhancing patient care and promoting holistic healing approaches within the framework of naturopathy.
Feedback:	Participants found the FDP on Physical Medicine Modalities informative and engaging. The combination of expert lectures and hands-on workshops enhanced their understanding and practical skills, empowering them to apply these modalities effectively in clinical practice.

Report

Title of the Activity:	Legal Research Methodologies
Date	September 19 – 23, 2022
Coordinator of the activity	Dr. Usman Khan
Conducting Department	School of Law and Constitutional Studies
Total Number of the Participants	53
Venue	Seminar Hall
Purpose of the Activity	The Faculty Development Program Legal Research Methodologies, held from September 19-23, 2022, aims to advance participants' skills in conducting legal research. This program is designed to provide a comprehensive understanding of various research methodologies applicable to legal studies. Participants will explore key aspects such as qualitative and quantitative research methods, data collection and analysis techniques, and effective legal writing and citation practices. Through a series of expert-led sessions and practical exercises, attendees will gain insights into best practices for designing and executing robust legal research projects. The FDP seeks to equip faculty members with the tools and knowledge needed to enhance their research capabilities, foster academic excellence, and contribute to the development of innovative legal scholarship. Ultimately, the program aims to strengthen the quality and impact of legal research within the academic community.
Outcome of the Activity	Participants will acquire advanced skills in legal research methodologies, including data collection, analysis, and presentation. This will enhance their ability to conduct rigorous legal research and contribute effectively to scholarly work and practical legal solutions.
Feedback:	The FDP on Legal Research Methodologies was excellent, offering comprehensive insights into effective research techniques. The sessions were engaging and practical, enhancing participants' skills in legal research. The expertise of the speakers greatly contributed to a valuable learning experience.

Report

Title of the Activity:	Contemporary Issues in Constitutional Law
Date	March 13 – 15, 2023
Coordinator of the activity	Dr. Usman Khan
Conducting Department	School of Law and Constitutional Studies
Total Number of the Participants	25
Venue	Seminar Hall
Purpose of the Activity	FDP on Contemporary Issues in Constitutional Law, scheduled for March 13-15, 2023, aims to offer a thorough examination of current and emerging issues within constitutional law. This program is designed to deepen faculty members' understanding of the dynamic nature of constitutional principles and their application in contemporary contexts. Participants will explore critical topics such as constitutional interpretation, fundamental rights, federalism, and the impact of recent judicial decisions on constitutional law. The FDP will feature sessions led by distinguished experts who will provide insights into the latest legal developments and theoretical debates. By engaging with these contemporary issues, attendees will enhance their ability to teach constitutional law effectively and contribute to scholarly discussions. Ultimately, the program seeks to equip educators with the knowledge and skills necessary to address evolving constitutional challenges and foster a robust understanding of constitutional jurisprudence among students.
Resource Person(s)	Dr. Shubham Sharma, Dr. P Panwar, Dr. G. Tyagi, Dr. Amir
Outcome of the Activity	Participants will gain a deep understanding of contemporary constitutional issues, including recent judicial developments and theoretical debates. This enhanced knowledge will improve their teaching and scholarly contributions, equipping them to address current challenges in constitutional law effectively.
Feedback:	The FDP on Contemporary Issues in Constitutional Law was highly insightful and well-organized. The sessions provided a comprehensive overview of recent developments and debates. The expert speakers were engaging, significantly enriching our understanding of current constitutional challenges.

Activity Report

Title of the Activity:	Artificial Intelligence and Machine Learning: Theory and Applications
Date	February 06 – 12, 2023
Coordinator of the activity	Dr. Varun Bansal
Conducting Department	Computer Science & Engineering
Total Number of the Participants	35
Purpose of the Activity	The Faculty Development Program on Artificial Intelligence and Machine Learning: Theory and Applications aims to provide faculty members with in-depth learning and exposure to the latest developments in AI and machine learning. The program seeks to equip participants with the necessary training and guidance to understand AI concepts, develop course materials, and integrate AI into their teaching practices. By doing so, the FDP aims to enhance the quality of education and promote a balanced and advanced learning-teaching system.
Venue	Seminar Hall
Resource Person	Dr. Tarun K Sharma; Dr. Om Prakash Verma (NIT Jalandhar); Dr. Snajay Sharma (HPU Shimla); Dr. Vaibhav Gupta (IRDE-DRDO Dehradun); Dr. Vineet Vishnoi (SIET Meerut)
Financial Support	Not Required
Outcome of the Activity	Participants of the FDP on Artificial Intelligence and Machine Learning: Theory and Applications gained a robust understanding of both foundational and advanced concepts in AI and ML. They acquired practical skills in implementing various machine learning algorithms, developing AI models, and applying these technologies across different domains. The program enhanced their ability to integrate AI and ML techniques into their research and teaching, providing them with the tools to address real-world challenges and innovate within their respective fields. Overall, the FDP equipped faculty members with the knowledge and practical experience needed to advance their expertise in AI and ML.
Feedback:	Faculty members found the FDP highly valuable, appreciating the comprehensive coverage of AI and ML concepts and applications. The hands-on sessions and expert insights significantly enhanced their understanding and practical skills in these technologies.

Title of the Activity:	Integration of Ayurveda and Modern Medicine
Date	23/01/2023 to 25/01/2023
Coordinator of the activity	Dr. Aisha Goel
Conducting Department	School of Ayurveda
Total Number of the Participants	40
Venue	Seminar Hall
Purpose of the Activity	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Establish mechanisms for effective collaboration between Ayurvedic practitioners, modern medical professionals, researchers, and educators.• Promote knowledge exchange and joint efforts in research, education, and clinical practice.• Develop and implement research protocols to generate robust evidence supporting the safety and efficacy of integrated treatments.• Ensure that integrated treatment plans are tailored to individual patient needs and preferences.
Resource Person	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Dr. AG Ravishankar, Professor, Shalyatantra, Alna's Ayurvedic College, Karnataka2. Dr. Ranjit Singh Manhas, Professor, Department of Shalya Tantra, School of Ayurveda, Shobhit University.
Outcome of the Activity	The FDP achieved several key outcomes: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Established networks and partnerships between Ayurvedic practitioners, modern medical professionals, researchers, and educators.2. Greater acceptance of integrated healthcare among diverse patient populations, particularly in regions where Ayurveda is traditionally practiced.3. More effective management of chronic diseases through integrated treatment approaches
Feedback:	Participants expressed positive feedback about the programme, highlighting the relevance of the topics covered and the quality of the sessions. Emphasis on collaboration between Ayurvedic and modern medical professionals was appreciated.

Skill Development

1. Practical Application: Hands-on training sessions and field visits will equip participants with the practical skills necessary to implement agro-ecological practices and biodiversity conservation techniques.
2. Monitoring and Evaluation: Participants will develop skills in monitoring and evaluating biodiversity within agricultural landscapes, enhancing their ability to assess and improve conservation efforts.
3. Curriculum Development: Faculty members will learn how to integrate agro-ecology and biodiversity conservation into their teaching and research, including the development of relevant curriculum content.

Professional Growth

1. Networking and Collaboration: The program will provide opportunities for participants to network with peers, experts, and practitioners, fostering future collaborations and professional relationships.
2. Research and Funding Opportunities: Information on funding opportunities for research and projects in agro-ecology and biodiversity conservation will help participants pursue further research and initiatives.
3. Action Plan Development: By the end of the FDP, participants will have developed action plans to implement the knowledge and skills gained in their respective institutions and communities.

Institutional Impact

1. Enhanced Teaching and Research: The FDP will contribute to the enhancement of teaching and research quality in agro-ecology and biodiversity conservation at the participants' institutions.
2. Policy Influence: Participants will be better equipped to influence and contribute to policy-making processes related to sustainable agriculture and biodiversity conservation.
3. Community Engagement: The program will encourage faculty members to engage with local communities and stakeholders,

Title of the Activity:	Homeopathy and Alternative Therapies
Date	21/12/2022 to 23/12/2022
Coordinator of the activity	Dr. Shiba Jha
Conducting Department	Kunwar Shekhar Vijendra Medical College of Naturopathy & Yogic Sciences
Total Number of the Participants	26
Venue	Seminar Hall
Purpose of the Activity	The Faculty Development Program (FDP) on Homeopathy and Alternative Therapies, held from December 21 to December 23, 2022, aims to provide faculty members with a comprehensive understanding of homeopathic and alternative medicine practices. The program features esteemed speakers including Dr. Abhijeet Chauhan, Dr. Anushi Chauhan, Dr. Vaishnavi, Dr. Roshni, and Dr. Jalpa, who will deliver insights into both traditional and contemporary approaches in these fields. The primary objective is to enhance participants' knowledge of the principles, applications, and benefits of homeopathy and various alternative therapies. Through a series of lectures, practical sessions, and case studies, attendees will gain practical skills in preparing and applying homeopathic remedies and alternative therapeutic techniques. The FDP aims to bridge the gap between conventional and alternative medicine, empowering educators to integrate these holistic approaches into their academic and clinical practices, and fostering a more inclusive perspective on health and wellness.
Resource Person(s)	Dr. Anushi Chauhan Dr. Vaishnavi Dr. Roshni Dr. Jalpa
Outcome of the Activity	The FDP on Homeopathy and Alternative Therapies, held from December 21 to December 23, 2022, successfully enhanced participants' expertise in holistic health approaches. Keynote sessions by Dr. Abhijeet Chauhan, Dr. Anushi Chauhan, Dr. Vaishnavi, Dr. Roshni, and Dr. Jalpa provided valuable insights and practical skills. Attendees gained a deeper understanding of homeopathy and alternative therapies, enabling them to integrate these practices into their professional and academic work.
Feedback:	The FDP on Homeopathy and Alternative Therapies, held from December 21 to 23, 2022, received positive feedback for its comprehensive coverage and expert insights. Participants appreciated the practical demonstrations and case studies led by Dr. Abhijeet Chauhan, Dr. Anushi Chauhan, Dr. Vaishnavi, Dr. Roshni, and Dr. Jalpa, finding the program highly beneficial.

Report

Title of the Activity:	Criminal Justice Reform: Policy, Practice, and Innovation
Date	April 24 – 28, 2023
Coordinator of the activity	Dr. Usman Khan
Conducting Department	School of Law and Constitutional Studies
Total Number of the Participants	22
Venue	Seminar Hall
Purpose of the Activity	Criminal Justice Reform: Policy, Practice, and Innovation, scheduled for April 24-28, 2023, aims to provide an in-depth exploration of contemporary issues and advancements in criminal justice reform. This program is designed to enhance faculty members' understanding of the multifaceted aspects of criminal justice, including policy development, innovative practices, and reform strategies. Participants will engage with renowned experts—Dr. Shubham Sharma, Dr. P Panwar, Dr. G. Tyagi, and Dr. Amir—who will present on key topics such as evidence-based reforms, restorative justice practices, and the integration of technology in criminal justice systems. The FDP will offer valuable insights into the challenges and opportunities within the field, equipping educators with the knowledge to effectively teach and contribute to ongoing reforms. Ultimately, the program seeks to foster a well-rounded perspective on criminal justice reform, promoting academic excellence and informed advocacy among participants.
Outcome of the Activity	Faculty members acquire a thorough understanding of criminal justice reform, encompassing policy changes, innovative practices, and emerging technologies. This knowledge will enhance their ability to educate and engage in meaningful reform efforts within the criminal justice system.
Feedback:	The FDP on Criminal Justice Reform was highly informative and engaging. The sessions provided valuable insights into policy and innovative practices. The expert speakers were excellent, making the program both educational and relevant for advancing criminal justice reform.

Activity Report

Title of the Activity:	Advanced Bioprocessing and Biomanufacturing Techniques
Date	10/04/2023 to 13/04/2023
Coordinator of the activity	Mrs. Sarita Sharma
Conducting Department	SBES
Total Number of the Participants	SBES
Purpose of the Activity	FDP on Advanced Bioprocessing and Biomanufacturing Techniques fostered innovation by exposure of participants to cutting-edge research in bioprocessing, encouraging them to initiate and lead research projects that address current challenges and opportunities in the field. FDP program enhanced the professional development of participants by improving their teaching methodologies, research capabilities, and understanding of industrial applications, thereby contributing to their career advancement and academic contributions. The FDP facilitated networking opportunities among participants, fostered interdisciplinary collaboration and knowledge exchange.
Venue	Seminar hall
Resource Person	1. Prof. Samer Singh, Professor of Biotechnology, Banaras Hindu University 2. Prof. (Dr.) Rajiv Dutta, Professor, SBES, Shobhit University, Gangoh
Outcome of the Activity	FDP on Advanced Bioprocessing and Biomanufacturing Techniques enabled participants to acquire specialized knowledge in areas such as cell culture techniques, bioreactor design, downstream processing, and process optimization. Participants developed skills in experimental design, data analysis, and the application of Quality by Design (QbD) principles to optimize bioprocesses.

Activity Report

Title of the Activity:	Contemporary Applications of Ayurvedic Principles in Modern Healthcare
Date	14/03/2023 to 18/03/2023
Coordinator of the activity	Dr. Kavita
Conducting Department	School of Ayurveda
Total Number of the Participants	60
Purpose of the Activity	The faculty development program (FDP) on Contemporary Applications of Ayurvedic Principles in Modern Healthcare emphasized on comprehensive training in the application of Ayurvedic diagnostic methods and treatments within modern clinical settings. It also educated faculty on how to effectively integrate Ayurvedic principles with contemporary medical practices. It facilitated the development of evidence-based practices that blend Ayurvedic wisdom with current medical knowledge. In depth lectures on the basic principles of Ayurveda including Dosha, Dhatus, Agni and Ojas were conducted which will be helpful for diagnostic purposes. The FDP equipped faculty in Ayurvedic diagnostic methods such as Nadi Pariksha (pulse diagnosis), Prakriti (constitution) assessment, tongue diagnosis.
Venue	Seminar hall

Report

Title of the Activity:	Mind-Body Medicine
Date	14/03/2023 to 16/03/2023
Coordinator of the activity	Dr. Shiba Jha
Conducting Department	Kunwar Shekhar Vijendra Medical College of Naturopathy & Yogic Sciences
Total Number of the Participants	61
Venue	Seminar Hall
Purpose of the Activity	The purpose of the FDP on Mind-Body Medicine, held from March 14 to 16, 2023, was to enhance faculty knowledge and skills in integrating mental and physical health practices. Keynote speakers aimed to provide comprehensive insights and practical techniques for promoting holistic well-being in academic and clinical settings.
Resource Person(s)	Dr. Neha Verma, Dr. Pankaj Singh, Dr. Kavita Reddy, Dr. Arjun Patel, Dr. Meera Sharma, Dr. Vikram Jain, Mr. Suresh Malhotra
Outcome of the Activity	The FDP on Mind-Body Medicine, held from March 14 to 16, 2023, enhanced participants' understanding of the interconnectedness of mental and physical health. Keynote speakers provided valuable insights and practical skills, enabling attendees to integrate mind-body medicine into their professional practice, fostering holistic health approaches.
Feedback:	The Faculty Development Program (FDP) on Mind-Body Medicine, held from March 14 to 16, 2023, was exceptionally enlightening. Keynote speakers Dr. Neha Verma, Dr. Pankaj Singh, Dr. Kavita Reddy, Dr. Arjun Patel, Dr. Meera Sharma, Dr. Vikram Jain, and Mr. Suresh Malhotra delivered insightful sessions that seamlessly integrated theoretical knowledge with practical applications. Participants gained a deeper understanding of the interplay between mental and physical health, and the interactive workshops were particularly praised for their hands-on approach. The program's holistic perspective and the expertise of the speakers significantly enriched the learning experience, making it an invaluable addition to our professional development.

Report

Title of the Activity:	Blockchain Technologies and its Applications
Date	June 12-16, 2023
Coordinator of the activity	Dr. Varun Bansal
Conducting Department	School of Engineering & Technology
Total Number of the Participants	49
Venue	Seminar Hall
Purpose of the Activity	FDP on Blockchain Technologies and its Applications is designed to provide educators and professionals with a thorough understanding of blockchain technology and its diverse applications. This program will cover the fundamentals of blockchain, including its architecture, consensus mechanisms, and smart contracts, as well as its practical applications across industries such as finance, supply chain, and healthcare. Through expert-led sessions, case studies, and hands-on workshops, participants will gain insights into developing and implementing blockchain solutions. The FDP aims to enhance participants' knowledge and skills, enabling them to integrate blockchain technology into their teaching and research effectively.
Resource Person(s)	Dr. Kamal Kant Hiran (Symbiosis University of Applied Sciences); Dr. Irshad Ahmad Ansari (PDPM Indian Institute of Information Technology Design and Manufacturing, Jabalpur); Dr. Meenakshi (Amity University Lucknow); Dr. Ajeet Singh Poonia (Bikaner Technical University, Rajasthan)
Outcome of the Activity	Participants acquired a solid understanding of blockchain fundamentals and practical applications, enhancing their ability to integrate and leverage blockchain technology in their research and teaching endeavors.
Feedback:	Participants found the FDP highly informative and practical. The sessions on blockchain fundamentals and real-world applications greatly enhanced their understanding and ability to apply this technology effectively.

Title of the Activity:	Legal Ethics and Professional Responsibility
Date	July 06 – 10, 2023
Coordinator of the activity	Dr. Usman Khan
Conducting Department	School of Law and Constitutional Studies
Total Number of the Participants	38
Venue	Seminar Hall
Purpose of the Activity	Legal Ethics and Professional Responsibility, scheduled for July 6-10, 2023, aims to provide faculty members with a profound understanding of ethical standards and professional responsibilities in the legal field. This program is designed to enhance educators' ability to instill ethical values and professional integrity in their students. Through comprehensive sessions, participants will explore key topics such as the code of conduct for legal professionals, conflicts of interest, client confidentiality, and the role of ethics in legal decision-making. The FDP will feature expert speakers who will share real-world insights and case studies, fostering a practical understanding of ethical dilemmas and their resolutions. By the end of the program, attendees will be better equipped to teach and model ethical behavior, ensuring that future legal professionals uphold the highest standards of integrity and responsibility in their practice. This FDP aims to promote academic excellence and ethical consciousness in legal education.
Resource Person(s)	Dr. Imran Khan, Mr. Gaurav Tyagi, Dr. Pritam Panwar
Outcome of the Activity	Participants of the FDP on Legal Ethics and Professional Responsibility will gain a thorough understanding of ethical standards and professional responsibilities in the legal field, enabling them to effectively teach and promote these values. This will enhance the ethical consciousness and integrity of future legal professionals.
Feedback:	The FDP on Legal Ethics and Professional Responsibility was enlightening and well-structured. The sessions provided valuable insights into ethical standards and professional responsibilities in the legal field. The expert speakers and practical case studies significantly enhanced our understanding and teaching capabilities. Overall, it was an enriching experience for all participants.

	10:45 AM - 12:15 PM	Big Data Technologies and Ecosystems	Dr. Mohit Kumar	Discussion on key technologies and platforms used in big data analytics (e.g., Hadoop, Spark).
	01:30 PM - 03:00 PM	Practical Session: Setting Up Big Data Tools	Dr. Mohit Kumar	Hands-on workshop on installing and configuring big data tools and platforms.
	03:15 PM - 04:45 PM	Data Storage and Management in Big Data	Dr. Mohit Kumar	Techniques for managing and storing large volumes of data, including NoSQL databases.
6/6/2023	09:00 AM - 10:30 AM	Data Processing and ETL (Extract, Transform, Load)	Dr. Vaibhav Gupta	Methods for processing and transforming big data to prepare it for analysis.
	10:45 AM - 12:15 PM	Practical Session: Data Processing with Apache Spark	Dr. Vaibhav Gupta	Hands-on workshop on using Apache Spark for data processing and analysis.
	01:30 PM - 03:00 PM	Data Analytics Techniques and Algorithms	Dr. Vaibhav Gupta	Overview of advanced analytics techniques, including machine learning algorithms.
	03:15 PM - 04:45 PM	Practical Session: Implementing Analytics Algorithms	Dr. Vaibhav Gupta	Hands-on workshop on applying data analytics algorithms to real-world datasets.
7/6/2023	09:00 AM - 10:30 AM	Data Visualization for Big Data	Dr. Ambuj Agarwal	Techniques and tools for visualizing large datasets to extract insights.
	10:45 AM - 12:15 PM	Practical Session: Creating Visualizations with Tableau	Dr. Ambuj Agarwal	Hands-on workshop on building interactive dashboards and visualizations using Tableau.
	01:30 PM - 03:00 PM	Big Data Applications in Various Industries	Dr. Ambuj Agarwal	Exploration of big data applications across sectors like healthcare, finance, and retail.
	03:15 PM - 04:45 PM	Case Study: Successful Big Data Projects	Dr. Ambuj Agarwal	Analysis of case studies showcasing successful big data projects and their impact.
8/6/2023	09:00 AM - 10:30 AM	Advanced Topics in Big Data Analytics	Dr. Sameer Saxena	Discussion on emerging trends and advanced topics in big data analytics.
	10:45 AM - 12:15 PM	Practical Session: Working with Streaming Data	Dr. Sameer Saxena	Hands-on workshop on handling and analyzing real-time streaming data.
	01:30 PM - 03:00 PM	Data Privacy and Security in Big Data	Mr. Omesh Yadav	Addressing privacy and security concerns related to big data management and analytics.

Title of the Activity:	Integrating Clinical Pharmacy Practice with Emerging Technologies
Date	13/09/2022 to 17/09/2022
Coordinator of the activity	Prof. (Dr.) Bhupendra Chauhan
Conducting Department	School of Pharmacy
Total Number of the Participants	40
Venue	Seminar Hall
Purpose of the Activity	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. To understand the role of technology in clinical pharmacy practice.2. To provide insights into technological advancement in clinical pharmacy practice.3. To explore the role of technology in the best therapeutic drug monitoring practice.4. To understand various technologies used for better health care practices.5. To explore the benefits of technology for patients and healthcare practitioners.
Resource Person	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Dr. Sunil Sharma, Professor, GJUST, Hisar: Expert in the Field.2. Dr. Sahil Arora, Consultant Physician: Expert in the Field.3. Dr. Madan Kaushik, Professor and Director, School of Pharmacy, Shobhit University4. Dr. Arif Naseer, Professor, School of Pharmacy, Shobhit University.5. Dr. Mayank Yadav, Professor, School of Pharmacy, Shobhit University.6. Mr. Jai Parkash Kadian, Associate Professor, School of Pharmacy, Shobhit University.
Outcome of the Activity	The FDP achieved several key outcomes: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Increased awareness about technologies used in healthcare system for better therapeutic outcomes.2. Gained awareness about the challenges and opportunities in technological advancements in the healthcare system.3. Improved understanding and utilization of tools in therapeutic drug monitoring for the betterment of patients.4. Gained practical skills in different technologies used in clinical practices.5. Enhanced understanding and utilization of advanced tools and techniques that aid in personalized medicine and pharmacotherapy optimization
Feedback:	Participants expressed positive feedback about the programme, highlighting the relevance of the topics covered and the quality of the sessions. They

Report

Title of the Activity:	Lifestyle Medicine & Preventive Care
Date	11/07/2022 to 15/07/2022
Coordinator of the activity	Dr. Shiba Jha
Conducting Department	Kunwar Shekhar Vijendra Medical College of Naturopathy & Yogic Sciences
Total Number of the Participants	33
Venue	Seminar Hall
Purpose of the Activity	The purpose of the Faculty Development Program (FDP) on Lifestyle Medicine & Preventive Care is to equip healthcare professionals, educators, and researchers with the knowledge and skills needed to integrate lifestyle interventions into patient care. The program focuses on evidence-based approaches to prevent chronic diseases, promote well-being, and enhance quality of life through diet, exercise, stress management, and behavior change strategies. By emphasizing preventive care, the FDP aims to empower participants to advocate for healthier lifestyles in their communities, improve patient outcomes, and contribute to the broader goal of reducing the healthcare burden associated with preventable diseases.
Outcome of the Activity	The outcome of the Faculty Development Program (FDP) on Lifestyle Medicine & Preventive Care is to produce healthcare professionals equipped with the expertise to effectively implement lifestyle interventions in clinical practice. Participants will gain a deeper understanding of the scientific principles behind preventive care, learn how to address chronic diseases through diet, physical activity, and behavioral changes, and enhance their communication skills to engage patients in sustainable health practices. By the end of the program, attendees will be empowered to integrate preventive care strategies into their teaching, research, and patient care, fostering a proactive approach to health and wellness in their communities.
Feedback:	The FDP on Lifestyle Medicine & Preventive Care was highly informative and engaging. It provided valuable insights into integrating lifestyle changes into clinical practice, enhancing our ability to address chronic diseases effectively. The sessions were practical, evidence-based, and fostered collaborative learning, equipping participants with actionable strategies for promoting health and prevention.

Report

Title of the Activity:	Corporate and Commercial Law: Emerging Trends and Challenges
Date	July 04 – 08, 2022
Coordinator of the activity	Dr. Usman Khan
Conducting Department	School of Law and Constitutional Studies
Total Number of the Participants	25
Venue	Seminar Hall
Purpose of the Activity	The purpose of the FDP on "Corporate and Commercial Law: Emerging Trends and Challenges" is to provide participants with an in-depth understanding of the latest developments in corporate and commercial law. The program aims to explore emerging legal trends, regulatory changes, and their impact on business practices. It seeks to equip faculty members with the knowledge and skills necessary to analyze and address complex legal issues related to corporate governance, mergers and acquisitions, and international trade. By fostering critical thinking and practical insights, the FDP aims to enhance the participants' ability to contribute effectively to legal education and practice.
Resource Person(s)	Mr. Amir (SU Meerut)
Outcome of the Activity	The FDP on "Corporate and Commercial Law: Emerging Trends and Challenges" equipped participants with a comprehensive understanding of the latest developments and challenges in corporate and commercial law. Faculty members gained insights into evolving legal frameworks, regulatory changes, and their implications for businesses. The program also enhanced their ability to analyze and address complex legal issues in corporate governance, mergers and acquisitions, and international trade. Additionally, participants developed a deeper appreciation for the role of legal strategies in corporate decision-making and risk management. Overall, the FDP fostered critical thinking and practical skills necessary for navigating the dynamic landscape of corporate and commercial law.
